Taylor companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solveney and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few grazls, and no experience. They are honded upon the very less securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—eccurities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliabile and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of gante, as the experience of the past teaches, to become aimost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above manned companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years faken at less rates than one be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an ancertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

DAILY GAZETTE.

We find the following account of a ferrible encounter with a grizzly bear in the Jacksonville Sentinel of the 10th inst. A German, named Wm. Brahmar, living on Rogue river, two miles below Bethel's Ferry, had a terrible encounter with a grizrerry, had a terrible encounter with a griz-ly bear on the morning of Thursday of last week. He was out hunting, accom-panied by two dogs. When about two miles from his cabin, in the woods, his dogs started upon the track of some animal, which they traced to a clump of brush. Here they halted, and seen commeaced barking violently. Brahmer, thinking they had dis-covered a black bear, hastened to the spot, Just as he came in front of the stump of an Just as no came in tropt of the admit of an old oak tree, a grizzly came charging to wards him, with jaws wide open, growling and snorting. Our hunter raised his rifle, quickly aimed at the brute's head, but before he could pull trigger, the bear was within a few feet of him. Instantly, he lowered his piece so as to hit the monster directly in the month, and pulled. The cap snapped.
In a moment, quick as a flash, the bear rose upon his hind feet, caught Brahmar's right arm between his teeth, and with his fore paws forcibly threw his victim to the ground. Before letting go with his teeth, the grizzly had torn the great muscle of Brahmar's upper arm almost entirely away, thus completely crippling him. But the plucky fellow reached for his knife with his left hand. The effort was vain, and meanwhile the hear was biting and tearing his limbs and flesh fearfully With great presence of mind, Brahmar then, as a last chance for escape from the clutches of his assailant, cried out, for his dogs: They answered to his call, happily, and at once set to in worrying the commo left Brahmar, and commenced battle with

foe. Finding himself thus unceremoniously attacked in the rear, the grizzly the dogs. The lacerated man took advantage of this diversion, and gathering all his energies, rose to his feet, made a pretty fleet run for about two hundred yards, when he reaction of vigor. The dogs and bear continued fighting. The loss of blood and the severe pain of his wounds began to tell upon Brahmar, yet he managed to creep and drag his way to his own cabin, which he reached in two or three hours time. The bear had tracked him for a part of the way, but was kept from close approach by the faithful dogs. Some men huppened to be at the cabin when Brahmar arrived, and while some of them attended to him, the rest went in search of the bear. He had made good his escape, and the dogs apparently well content to let him alone, had returned to their master's cubin. Dr. Brooks was sent for, and on Friday he dressed the wounds that were serious or severe. On Monday, Brahmar was brought to town, and is now at Dr. Brooks' hospital, where we saw him on Wednesday, and received from ais own lips a sketch of his fearful adventure: His body is bitten and lacerated ter-ribly. He has over fifty wounds in all, twenty-eight of which are quite serious. More than two pounds of flesh has been torn from his right arm, and the great muswas about 600 pounds weight. - San Francisco Herald, Nov. 21. FEARS OF A NEGRO INSURRECTION IN

SOUTH CAROLINA. The Charleston correspondent of the New York Times says : Great vigilance is exercised, not only in this city, but throughout the state, over the movements of the negro population. Without any doubt, there is a growing apprehension that the dangers of insurrection are imminent, and the legislature has before it several bills designed to meet the case, providing for a patrol police throughout the SIX HORSE LOADS OF SPECIE. The Persia's specie list, about $3,000,000 (11,709 pounds of gold,) would comfortably load six horses. It is quite a consolatory sight, in these hard times, to witness six wagon loads of gold pass up Broadway. There are few cities in which there are so many wretched, suffering people, and at the same ime so much coin as in Gotham: May the rocks" continue to come however, for the world would not, after all, he worth living in without them.—New Fork News.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Times says:
"I saw a letter from one of the soldiers at Fort Sumpter (there was at that time only about haif a dozen of them) to his mo-ther to-day. He says the fort is in excellent condition for defence, full of amunition and arms, and with a few more men could defy any enemy that could approach it. He says all hands expect a conflict, and feel greatly alarmed at the prospect, because their numbers are so small. They hope the government will do something to aid them; if not, they will defend the fort to the nest of their ability. The closing words are quite touching and solemn." LIST OF THE LOST .- The following persons, without doubt, perished in the confla gration of Sunday morning last, by the fallng of the walls occupied by George Dyer

Charles McDermott and Robert Lundy members of Engine Co. Gen. Scott not to be Secretary of War. The well-informed Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing under date of the 31st, at 11 o'clock P. M., says that Gen Scott was offered the position of Secretary of War, but that all the members of the cabinet protested.

Gen. Scott is a man of action, and would bring matters to a focus in the cabinet .--They would have to take measures to head off treason and punish the traitors or come out for them. The secessionists want delay. They are in favor, at this time of an uncertain and vacillating policy, such as the President pursues, rather than open opposition on the part of the government. As Mr. Buchanan's earnest desire is to get thro' his term without a rupture with the traitors, he will not insist upon appointing such a man as Scott. In truth, it is doubtful whether he wants him at all, but makes the offer of his appointment to satisfy, in some degree, the pressure from the north. It is understood that if Maj. Anderson is recalled that Gen. Scott will resign his position of General-in-Chief, and be ready to offer his services to the people, in case there is an attack upon Washington, as is threat-

The Milwankee Fire.

The Milwaukee papers pay handsome, and we have no doubt, deserved tributes to the firemen of that city. Their heroism, energy and faithfulness, at the late fire was above all praise. Three of them paid the forfeit of their lives to the considerations of duty, during the recent conflagration. The Free Democrat says:

During the whole of Sunday, Monday, and the first half of Tuesday, did these noble fellows dig and delve among the smoking, heated runs, in search of their com rades, before they began to find fragments of bones—whether belonging to their com rades or others who died with them, none but God knoweth! God bless the noble firemen of Milwan-

The Wisconsin says:

The vault belonging to the bank of Armstrong, Spink & Co., in Cross' late building, was opened to day, and the fire had not in jured it inside in the least. There were some books and papers in it which were as sound as when placed there. The vault was constructed by Shumacher & Johnson, the safe makers.

The contents of the safes in the clerk's and school commissioner's offices were got out in first rate order, after remaining from forty to sixty hours.

The Wisconsin says:

The location of Cross' building, which was the scene of the calamitous fire of Sunday morning last, seems to be a doomed one. Fires have occurred upon it three different times, entirely consuming the buildings standing thereon, and lightning destroyed the United States block, owned by Clark Shepardson and J. B. Cross, and occupied by Mr. Edward Button. That fire extended also over the whole block on which the hotel was situated, and destroyed property estimated at something like $400,000.

THE ST. LOUIS ARSENAL STORY .- AS we supposed, the dark and mysterious story of the St. Louis Republican, about the scheme on the part of the Germans of that city, with the aid of somebody in Chicago, and the recommendation in the back to the to take possession of the United States arsenal in St. Louis, and distribute the arms which to concect such a yarn. The St. Louis Republican is preparing for the spring elections, and is stirring up the people with its reckless canards. The Democrat says it will have the effect to put the authorities at the arsenal on the alert, to watch the nullifiers of Missouri who have a secret military organization, similar to that of "border ruffian" times, when they broke open the arsenal at Liberty in that state.

Two hundred thousand muskets have been taken from the Springfield Armory, by order of the secretary of war, during the last year, and distributed over the southern states. About the same number remain there at the present time.

Previous to leaving office, Floyd, the secretary of war, sold twenty thousand muskets to the state of Virginia, which were removed from Springfield, Mass.

The Harriet Lane, war steamer, has sailed for Charleston, under sealed orders.

The Cincinnati Gazette says that Thomas, secretary of treasury, and Thompson, secretary of the interior, have resigned. The former was thought, at one time, to be a Union man, but his sympathies are with the secessionists.

LOOK OUT FOR HUMBUGS .-- We have good reason for offering a world of special cau-tion to our readers, "about these days."-At least a half a dozen schemes for extensive swindling have come to our knowledge during the past month. "Private" and "confidential" circulars by the million, are now being mannfactured in this city. Great numbers of these are daily sent on, but the business is to be largely increased as soon as the excitement of the presidential for her, and the officiating priest delivered election is over. There is scarcely a family chapter of the United States or British provinces, chapt, which is divided into two parts by from one to a dozen establishments in some of our large cities, and tempting plausible she was seen on the other side of the grat-circulars will be sent through the mails to ing on her knees. The priest approached them, offering all sorts of inducements to and asked her whether she still persisted in nothing new to be specially noted—such this one of the nuns who were standing by scheme no matter how tempting, is so much of the character of a hundred others that her head, let her beautiful hair fall on her have gone before, that it is surprising how shoulders, and then with a seissors severed there can be found foolish persons enough the tresses close to the head. A murmur to keep these humbugs alive.

One of the most wily schemes to be pushed this autumn and winter is the offer of so called gold articles, such as magnificent chapel, but re-appeared in a few moments "gold pencils, pens, etc." A few statistics after, dressed in the garb of a Carmelite cottained at one of the manufactories of nun. She lay down on the steps of the these articles, show that they are being the chapel, a funeral cloth was thrown over her, turned out by the ten thousand. A "gold pen and magnificent case," is stamped out of some cheap metal, and then galvanized persons in the chapel were retiring.

over with the thinnest possible film of gold. The whole is done so skillfully, that the common observer will find it utterly impossible to distinguish between a bona fide article worth $3 so $6 and the bogus one costing 6 to 15 cents. The outside film of gold, though less than the two-hundredth housand part of an inch in thickness, is yet enough to cover up the inside base metal, and protect it from the usual acid test, while the filling of cheap metal prevents detecting the deception by the weight. We have seen a pen and case that cost 16 cents to manufacture, that was offered as a $3 premium or "gift" and no one but a practical gold smith or jeweler could detect the deception. The same remark applies to various other gilded (not gold) articles .--American Agriculturist.

E. Scofield was placed on the committee on county poor, in place of Hubbell West, and A. Smiley on the committee on justices' and constables' accounts in place of K. W. Bemis.

A communication was received from the district attorney reporting the terms of the settlement with the Milwaukee Mutual Fire Insurance company for the insurance on the court house. [The company pay $1250, and each party pays its own costs of suit. The insurance was for $1500; the costs to the county about $40, leaving the county a nett amount of $1200.] An appropriation of $6 was made to repair the safe in the county judge's office.

The committe on court expenses reported in favor of allowing a large number of bills, principally witness fees, amounting to $92,27. Also, a bill of the clerk of the circuit court for $119.54. Report adonted. The committee on justices' and constables' accounts recommended the allowance ness, and of obedience to the constitution of a number of small bills amounting to and laws which belong to their civil and $36,18. Adopted.

The board then adjourned to 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

THURSDAY MORNING, Jan. 3, 1861. The board met pursuant to adjournment. The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

Mr. Golden introduced a resolution appropriating $300 to the town of Avon for building bridges in that town.

Mr. Bates moved to amend by adding an appropriation of $700 to the city of Janesville for the same purpose.

The amendment was lost, and the resolution referred to the committee on bridges. H. K. Whiton presented tax certificate No. 89, on certain property in Janesville, including the big mill, sale of 1853, for a has struck three different buildings thereon tax of $143,80, and asked that it be canat different times. The spot was visited by the great fire of August 24th, 1854, which described.

Considerable discussion arose as to the propriety and justice of cancelling certificates for this reason, or other causes, on a report of the committee on illegal taxes and men have been stationed at Fort Moulrecommending the cancelling and charging the tax to the city, in which Mr. Whiton and Messrs. Bennett, Bates, Tallman, Foote and Earle, members of the board, participated. Messrs. Bates and Tallman opposed committee for further investigation. A petition was received from Johnson & rageous hoax. There was nothing out of Brother, of Beloit, asking to be refunded on the ground that they had been but four months in the county. Referred to the committee on illegal taxes.

> The committee on court expenses report ed in favor of allowing bills amounting to $36,80. Report adopted.

The committee on justices' and constables' accounts recommended the allowance of bills amounting to $350,40. Report adopted.

The committee on court expenses recommended the allowance of bills amounting to $50,73. Report adopted.

BURIAL ALIVE. - One of the most shockng cases of burial of a living person-the victim being a young and pretty quasi wid-ow—is told in a Paris paper as follows: Mademoiselle Blanche de Beauval, a wealthy heiress of Orleans, was about eight months ago to have been married to the Viscount de Chamoy, but as the bridegroom elect was in delicate health, he was recommended to go for a short time to Italy, and the ceremony was postponed to October last. The Viscount, however, never reached his destination, having died on his way thither, and the lady, overwhelmed with grief, determined to take the veil. Her resolution was carried into effect three days ago, at the Carmelite Convent in the Faubourg du Roule, at Orleans. At the hour fixed for the ceremony the chapel was filled with persons who had been invited to be present, and soon after a door leading from the interior of the convent opened, and Mademoiselle de Beauval, in the prime of youth and beauty, entered, leaning on the an iron railing, closed by a curtain. In a moment after the curtain was withdrawn, get their money.

In lottery and gift enterprises there is she replied in a firm voice, "Yes." On nothing new to be specially noted—such this one of the nuns who were standing by of regret was heard among all the persons present when this sacrifice was commenced. Mademoiselle de Beauval then lel't the

From the Presbyterian A Day of Prayer.

To the Ministers, Ruling Elders and Churches connecte with the General Assembly of the Print the United States of America. DEARLY BELOVED-In view of the distracted and perilous condition of our civil affairs, many brethren, among the most distinguished of the ministers and ruling olders of the church, have requested the moderaents tor of the last general assembly to name We and recommend a day to be observed by the churches in united prayer to God for our country. They request that, although not invested with official authority to enjoin such an observance, he would, as he properly may, present the suggestion to all the churches connected with the general assem:

We happily continue a united church, embracing north and south, in a harmoni-ous and peaceful communion. On the great and solemn subject which causes the present trouble, our church has a statement of views in which the great body of our people have long agreed, and do still agree, as embodying the principles of the word of God, those of the constitution of the United States, in entire consistency with one another. We must be expected to cherish a strong desire for the preservation of our national unity, and the firm persuasion that our union, peace and prosperity can be immovably established on the basis of truth and right. But our strength and hope are in God alone. The deep feeling of our de-pendence on Him in this extremity, and the humble hope of His favor, have prompted this invitation to the churches, and will through His blessing, dispose them to embrace the invitation with all the heart.

After extensive consultation with breth ren in the different sections of the church, who have, almost without exception, con-curred in and urged the proposal, it has seemed proper to comply with the request.
This had been determined upon, and the address to the churches, recommending Thursday of the General Assembly's week of prayer, had been prepared for publication, when the proclamation of the President of the United States appeared, appointing en earlier day. It is therefore earnestly recommended to the people of our congregations that they observe

Friday, the 4th day of January next, the day appointed by the President of the United States; assembling on that day in their respective places of worship, and unit ing in supplication to Almighty God for His gracious help in this our time of need; that He would, for Christ's sake, freely pardon all those sins of the nation which have brought these perils upon us; that He would dispose the people of all the states to every work of justice, of brotherly kindreligious relations, and which He will mercifully bless for the restoration of harmony, security, and mutual love; that He would hestow His own Spirit of wisdom on our Rulers, Legislatures, and Conventions; enabling them to discern His wise, and holy, and merciful will respecting all classes o our people, and so to adjust their public measures, and fulfil their public duties as to secure the highest good of all, and the giory of His Most Holy Name.

And may the Lord be merciful unto us, and hear our prayer.
JOHN W. YEOMANS, Moderator of the last Gen. Assembly. Danville, Pa., December 21, 1860.

From Charleston--How Fort Moultrie was Evacuated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30. Major Anderson, I hear, dined formally on Christmas day, with the authorities of Charleston, and returned, apparently pretty well provided with good things, early in the evening. This induced the watchers upon Maj. Anderson, stationed in the harbor by in this way he was enabled to spike his guns and retreat to Fort Sumpter. He evidently feels, however, the disagreeableness of his position, and nothing but a sense of duty keeps him where he is. Both himself trie a good while, and have enjoyed the hospitalities of the people, and would be, therefore, particularly loth to fire on the people of Charleston.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 31. The Charleston Courier, of Friday, says that Major Anderson has achieved the unenviable distinction of opening civil war between American citizens, by an act of gross breach of faith, and that he has virally and grossly violated a solemn a given by his chief and accepted by South Carolina, that he had all possible assurance of South Carolina that his honor, position and duty would be respected until a proper and open declaration of war.

In the details of Maj. Anderson's movements, the Courier says the evacuation of Fort Moultrie commenced after sundown on Wednesday. The men were ordered to hold themselves in readiness with knapsacks packed, but up to the moment of leaving, had no idea of abandoning the fort. They were reviewed on parade, and were then ordered to two schooners, lying in the vicinity, where they embarked, taking with them all the necessary stores, &c. Several trips were made during the night under cover of were made during the night, under cover of which a great part of the provisions and camp furniture was transported.

The greater portion of the labor expended on Fort Moultrie was upon the citadel, r west point of the position. This citade Maj. A. had strengthened in every way.

Loopholes were cut, and everything so arranged that, in case a well concacted attack was made, he could have retired from the outer bastions to the citadel, and afterwards blown up the other positions of the fort. For this purpose mines had already been sprung, and trains laid, ready for the appli-cation of the match. The barrack-rooms, and every other part of the fort that was indefensible, would have gone at a touch.

On the ramparts fronting Fort Sumter were nine eight inch Columbiads, mounted on wooden carriages. As soon as the evacuation was complete, these carriages were burnt, and the guns thereby dismounted. These guns, as well as those constituting the entire armament, were spiked before the fort was abandoned.

This is the only damage done to the for tification further than the cutting down of the flag staff and breaking up of ammuni tion wagons to form ramparts on the walls of the fort. Other particulars are given.

The confusion could not have been more complete had the late occupants retired in the face of a beseiging foe. The entire place was littered with the odds and ends and fragments of war's desolation. The spiked guns and those dismantled by the burning of the carriages, will soon be in a position to respond to every hostile demonstration against the place.

More Treason in High Quarters.—We are advised that Gen. Wool will publish a letter to day, stating that Secretary Floyd sold, on the 10th of December, to S. B. Lamar of Georgia, a well known secessionist, ten thousand muskets, which were then in the Watervliet arsenal, at the low price of \$2,20 each. The muskets were shipped on the 14th, or as soon as the boxes could be made for them, and are probably in the hands of those who threaten to use them against the federal government.-Albany $\it Journal.~29th.$

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE. BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

The legislature met at 11 o'clock this A M. The governor, in his message, in relation to national affairs says in his opinion secession is disunion, and disunion so soon as it shall take form and proportion, is treason, which it will be the duty of the general government to arrest and punish. To permit and acquiesce in treasonable conspiracy against the national authorities is to con fess that our government is an absolute failure. The people of New York are not pre-pared for such an admission, and in the enforcement of the laws will give their earnest, faithful and constant support. New York does not ask, nor does she desire, the estoration of the Missouri compromise line After full and free discussion her people have declared against the extension of slavery into any of the territories, and this they regard as a disposition of that ques-tion till revoked by the same authority.— Ever ready nevertheless, as she has proved perself to be heretofore, New York will in all possible ways endeavor to reconcile the difficulties now existing in the country.— The action of a magnanimous and loyal state should be patient, calm, conciliatory and fraternal without the surrender of important rights, nor the sacrifice of vital principles. it is entirely inoperative, and, without any disposition to interfere, he respectfully in

Gov. Morgan recommends the repeal of the so called personal liberty i v, although vites all states that have laws of the same character, conflicting with the federal con stitution, to repeal them. Instead of the message, the president sent in an important nomination for collector in the neighborhood of Charleston harbor. The name is believed to be Wm. McIntyre of Pennsylvania, although others say of New York. The republican senators desired to go into executive session on the subject, but this was resisted by the other side, and an adjournment was carried by the democrats present with the exception of Senators Bigler, Latham and Powell. It is not certain, according to present appearances, that Mr. McIntyre will be confirmed.

The nomination is considered in the highest degree important, as foreshadowing the future operations of the administration. Private accounts from Charleston state

The revolution was progressing in Carthagenia. The city of Santa Martha was enpured Dec. 15th, by revolutionists. The government troops escaped. The revolutionists committed great excesses at Santa Martha but were prevented from plundering the custom house by the intervention of the British frigate Tagus. DETROIT, Jan. 3.

Michigan legislature met at Lansing yes-terday and organized by electing Dexter Mussy of Macomb speaker. The retiring governor delivered his angual message to both houses. The state affairs are represented in a prosperous condition. He takes strong grounds against right of secession, and charges the president of the United sion pole, one hundred feet high, which had been raised at Petersburgh, Virginia, was cut down the next morning by some person of the republican party and attributes the unknown, and the Palmetto flag upon it present sectional excisement to the misrep-States with misrepresenting the principles of the republican party and attributes the resentation of the northern democratic press as to the intentions and designs of that party. In relation to the personal liberty of this state he says if they are unconstitu-tional and in conflict with the fugative slave law they should be repealed, but he says these laws are right and speak the senti ments of the people and are in strict accor dance with the constitution and ought not to be repealed. Let them stand, this is no ime for timid and vacillating councils, while the cry of treason is ringing in our ears. The message of the in-coming goverument will be delivered to day. The Markets.

Health for the Afflicted. DR.J.H. WILLIAMS, Surgeon, Physician, Occulist, &c.,

(FORMERLY OF NEW TORK,) PROPOSES to locate in this state, perhaps at Janes-ville, and offers, for the present, his services to the afflicted of this city and county.

Dr. W. has, for a quarter of a century, given special attention to DISEASES OF THE EYES, and to diseases of women and children; and he also promises cures for communition, cancers, and, indeed, all difficult cases. Having had long experience, in hospitals and elsewhere, he assures relief for every malady, chronic or recent.

Call at the "American Hotel" and see the doctor and talk about your troubles. You can get, without cost, new ideas in regard to them,—and, at reasonable rates, the remedies. Janesville, January 2d, 1860.

THE CONSTITUTION OR THE STATUTE.-A question of special interest to our county officers and of general interest to our citizens is now receiving attention. The concounty officers shall commence the duties of their respective offices on the first day practice in this county heretofore has been are divided in opinion whether the constitution in prescribing the commencement of the worst of it if a collision takes place. the political year does not in itself fix the time when all officers created by it shall commence their duties, and that consequently the statute is in direct hostilty to the " bigher power" under which it was passed. This anestion, which we do not of course presume to decide, has an interest outside of the metter of fees to the out-going or incoming officer. A process issued or served, or an act performed by an officer who isnot enpowered to act, is without any validity, and voids the whole proceeding. Thus, if Mr. Lawton, as sheriff, acts where Mr. Putman should serve; or if Mr. Putman supercedes Mr. Lawton five days before he is qualified to act, in legal parlance "the d---l" is to pay, and the "code" would say "no go."

New Firm.-Our advertising columns this evening announce the formation of a new business firm, Mr. J. C. Echlin receiving Mr. E. T. Foote as a partner. Mr. F. has been for three years past a clerk in the house of which he is now a member, and has earned his promotion by strict attention to his duties and faithfulness to his employ- Reported for the Janeaville Gazette, er. Echlin's has long been a favorite trading place with the people of this city and county, and it will lose none of its popularity by the change now made.

ILLEGAL CERTIFICATES .- Much of the time and a good deal of hard work of the county board of supervisors at every session is devoted to an examination and cancellation of illegal tax certificates. One of the most frequent causes of application to the board is where a certificate has been issued ufter the tax has been paid. A method just adopted by the clerk of this city will in most or all cases avoid this trouble, or where it may be incurred will materially lessen the labor of examination to establish the fact. This method is the preservation of a stub for each receipt given, the stub containing a record of the date of the receipt, the amount paid, to whom given, and a description of the property on which the tax is paid. If this plan should be adopted in the towns, it would prevent many mistakes, or where a mistake o cours render a correction much easier than the process now required.

PRESETTERIAN CHURCH .-- In accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States and of the recommenda tion of the Moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, to morrow will be observed as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer by the Presbyterian church of this city. Public services in the evening, commencing at 7 o'clock.

METHODIST CHURCH .- Religious services will be observed in the Methodist Episcopal church of this city to morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Exchange is selling at Milwaukee and Chicago at five per cent., and the prospect is that it will go lower."

We have another splendid winter day. Sleighing is capital, and is used extensively by all who can get sleighs, cutters, jumpers, pungs, bob sleds, &c. Go it!while the snow lasts. ALBION ACADEMY .- This institution is located in the town of Albion, Dane county, about 31 miles east of Edgerton, among a community of moral, industrious and thriving farmers. It is in charge of two professors, T. R. Williams and A. R. Cornwall, the former a graduate of Brown University and the latter of Union College, who are assisted by eight teachers. The school is deservedly prosperous and has now a larger number of pupils than ever before, viz: 130. Situated at a point where immoral influences are necessarily few, and manned by a corps of religious instructors, the institution affords rare advantages of education to those who desire to have their children withdrawn from the temptations of a larger place.

On News Years' night, despite the many other attractions, a large audience assembled in the chapel. The exercises were spened by prayer by Rev. Mr. Babcock, who was followed in a beautiful song by the academy choir. Rev. Mr. Goodspeed, of this city, was then introduced and spoke to the audience, who listened attentively one hour and a quarter. After another well executed song by the choir, the assembly dispersed, and both lecturer and lectured seemed pleased and profited.

RE HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature takes known any deviation whatever from the matural rate of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be okted on as a safegueral intended to give netice or disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late be which might otherwise escape attention, till too late be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, in symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic head-the is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a rest variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, out, Rheumatism and all fabrile diseases. It is nerous form it is sympathetic of diseases. great variety of desires, among which are Apoplexy, tout, Rhounatism and all footifu disease, in its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomech constituting sick hexache, of hepatic disease constituting sick hexache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bewels, as well as remai and utorine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with headaches; Anemia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion healache. Idiopathic headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of revous headache, sometimes coming on suddonly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical enegies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, horalded by depression of spirits or accribity of temper.—In most instances the pain is to the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and som times providing voniting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and aste remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its anothe power oradinating the diseases of which headaches the remedy of the power oradinating the diseases of which head

Bringer.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of prepared Pills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be aftler knowing what is is, Ye see side's night dead and gone with the sick headsche, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggiat.—You must mean Spalding's Caphalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you'veed it, here's the means and ofer me the uills and dont be all day about Constinution or Costiveness.

No one of the "many lils flesh is hefr to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as constveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sederary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fated and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sunferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter-evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headacho, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Pilos, and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcasses, Dysentary, Diarrhoes, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriesis, itelancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this sharming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder shoult receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and to person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills in the first appearance of the complaint, as their time y use will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to haman life.

Physician.—Wall, Mrs. Jones, how is your headach?

Mrs. Jones.—Come! Doctor, all gone: the pill you cent cared me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Drugglets.—Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blesting.

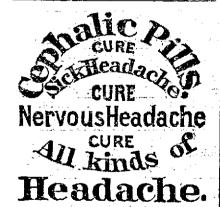

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Gloca and is is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by ouring all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his glue, headsche will soon vanish away like snow in July.

OVER EXCITEMENT, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of nervous headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing compilaint is a fixtal blow to all energy and ambition. Enforcers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from those distressing attacks, by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarriags nerves, and relaxes the tansion of CREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the greet medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox. the Cephalic Pill for relief of headachs, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of fevers, sither of which is a sure specific, whose beneaths will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverses are forgotten. ses are forgotten.

Did you ever have the sick headache! Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the localing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unit you were for pleasure, conversation or study.—One of the Cophalic Pills would have relieved you from all the saffaring which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Ner-rous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained. They soldom fail in removing Numsea and Headache to which females are so subject. They act gently upon the bowels,-removing Chalipe persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Lax-cieve, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIO FILLS are the result of long invesigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffaring from hesdache, whether originating in the nervsur system or from a deranged state of the stomach. They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect fafety without making any change of dist, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to chil-
